Mayor Balzotti Recognizes National Animal Control Appreciation Week

BROCKTON- Mayor Linda M. Balzotti, in recognition of the dedication demonstrated by the City of Brockton's Animal Control Department, announced today that the City of Brockton will recognize the week of April 11-17, 2010, as National Animal Control Appreciation Week.

"The animal control officers in the City of Brockton work hard to keep the residents and animals in our community safe," said Mayor Balzotti. "It is important to acknowledge their efforts."

National Animal Control Appreciation Week is an initiative by the National Animal Control Association (NACA) to celebrate and promote the continuing efforts and professionalism of animal control agencies nation wide. The City of Brockton is proud to join with NACA in supporting the City of Brockton's Animal Control Department and encourages the residents of Brockton to show their support for the dedicated work done by Brockton's Animal Control Officers.

For questions and/or further information concerning this release, please contact the Mayor's Office at (508)-580-7123. You can also obtain additional information by visiting the City of Brockton's website at: www.brockton.ma.us
